If you're looking for one tool that can transform your business, this is it! Embrace what your customers think and say about your company [the good together with the bad]—it will help you build a better business. The example below has many questions, and for the most part your customers will not want to take the time to answer too many questions. Create your own survey—choose the questions from below that you feel work best for you, or use our example to come up with others that better evaluate the customer experience for your type of business.
