If you want to take your training to the next level,
now is the time to attend!

MIKE HOLT'S Instructor CONFERENCE

Join us this summer and take your Classes to the next level!

Schools, associations, training programs and individual seminar leaders send instructors from around the country to this event. It's a great way to pick up new ideas and discover how to keep students engaged, make sure that learning is taking place, and increase your student success rate. The format of this program is a small group workshop that allows your instructors to really evaluate their programs and ask Mike questions in an informal setting. Mike shares the techniques that he has cultivated over 35 years of teaching everything from Basic Theory to Exam Preparation, Estimating Continuing Education courses. Instructors that attend this program have the option to present at this event and receive great feedback on their own technique and how they can take their teaching to the next level.
